

Overview of the Appeal Record & Transcripts

Civil Rules 14.15 – 14.21
Criminal Rules 16.12 – 16.15

Electronic Filing

On March 1, 2021, e-filing became mandatory. All documents must be formatted in accordance with the Practice Direction on Electronic Filing and filed via the Court of Appeal Management System (CAMS). Unless an exemption from e-filing is granted, paper documents at the counter and documents via email will not be accepted.

For more information about CAMS, including how to register for an account and how to format and file documents, view the CAMS Manual and FAQs. To visit the CAMS e-filing website, click here.

General

The Appeal Record is a document that must be filed by the appellant. It has three parts: Part 1 (Pleadings), Part 2 (Final Documents) and Part 3 (Transcripts). Part 1 and Part 2 are commonly filed together in a “red book” (as it must have a red cover), while Part 3 is filed as a stand-alone document.

Sample tables of contents for various types of appeal records are posted on the Court’s website under Court of Appeal > Registry > Filing Information > Appeal Record Requirements.

See also the Mandatory Requirements & Check/Return Form for an Appeal Record for a list of the minimum requirements that Registry staff will watch for when documents are filed. This form is located on the CAMS e-filing website under Manual/Tip Sheets > Mandatory Requirements & Check Return Forms.

Appellant Deadlines – Ordering Transcripts

Appeal Record (including transcripts)	Must be ordered, or preparation commenced, by the appellant within 10 days after filing a Notice of Appeal
Copy of Order Form	Must be filed and served by the appellant on the respondent(s) within 5 days of placing the order

Transcripts can be ordered from Transcript Management Services (TMS) by clicking here. Please note that when you order a transcript from Transcript Management Services (TMS), it is very important that you advise them that the transcript is required for an appeal. Otherwise, the transcript may not have all of the necessary formatting features when you receive it.

If the appellant prefers not to compile the Appeal Record itself, the entire Appeal Record may also be ordered from TMS by clicking here.

TMS's contact information is as follows:

Appellant Deadlines - Filing

Standard Appeal	4 months from the date that the Notice of Appeal was filed
Fast Track Appeal	1 month from the date that the Notice of Appeal was filed
Conviction Appeal (includes acquittal and decision appeals)	4 months from the date that the Notice of Appeal was filed
Sentence Appeal	Where the appeal is as to Sentence only and the net Sentence is
	6 months or less	2 months after the date on which the Notice of Appeal was filed
Sentence Appeal	More than 6 months	3 months after the date on which the Notice of Appeal was filed
	Where the appeal is as to Conviction and Sentence
		2 months after the date on which the conviction appeal was dismissed, struck or abandoned

IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT TRANSCRIPTS

All transcripts must be filed as a separate PDF, even if the transcript is short. The only transcript that should be included in the "red book" portion of the Appeal Record is any transcript of an oral decision. In that case, the oral reasons for decision will appear in two places: in Part 2 (Final Documents) and in Part 3 (Transcripts). If there were no oral reasons (i.e., the decision under appeal was given in writing), then there should be no transcript included in the “red book”.

Part 3, Transcripts, must be uploaded to the Court’s website (located under Court of Appeal > Electronic Filing or click here) and approved BEFORE the rest of the Appeal Record (Parts 1 and 2) is filed. Allow at least 3 business days for this step. That means that you must upload the transcript at least 3 business days before your deadline for filing the appeal record. If you attempt to file Part 1 and Part 2 of the Appeal Record before the transcript is uploaded, approved and filed, it will be returned to you, unfiled.

If TMS has prepared the Appeal Record, they will complete this step. If TMS has prepared only the Transcripts, it is the appellant’s responsibility to complete this step in which case you will need to ensure that the transcript complies with the Electronic Transcript Checklist.

If there is no oral record that can be transcribed for Part 3 (i.e., there was no oral evidence, no oral argument as set out below and no oral decision), then a notation to that effect must appear in the table of contents for Part 1 and Part 2.

Missed Deadlines

If the deadline for filing the Appeal Record is missed by the appellant:

Standard or Fast Track Appeal	The appeal will be struck
Conviction Appeal or Sentence Appeal (includes acquittal and decision appeals)	If the appellant is represented by counsel or is self-represented and not in custody	The appeal will be struck
	If the appellant is self-represented and in custody	The Registrar may refer the appeal to a single appeal judge for directions

Transcripts Required

The following transcripts must be ordered for a civil appeal:

Civil Appeal (includes Standard and Fast Track Appeals)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• all oral evidence (what the witnesses said)</li><li>• all oral argument (what the self-represented parties or lawyers said) from a chambers application, if that application did not exceed one-half day (if it exceeded one-half day, transcripts of oral argument are optional)</li><li>• only such part of the oral argument (what the self-represented parties or lawyers said) from a trial as is necessary to decide the appeal</li><li>• any oral reasons for the decision under appeal (what the judge said) and for any other ruling that will be an issue in the appeal</li></ul>
Conviction Appeal (includes Acquittal and Decision Appeals)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• all oral evidence (what the witnesses said)</li><li>• only that part of the oral argument (what the self-represented parties or lawyers said) that is necessary to determine the appeal</li><li>• any oral reasons for the decision under appeal (what the judge said)</li><li>• in the case of an appeal from a judgment in a jury trial, the address to the jury of each party, the judge’s charge to the jury and the answers given to any questions from the jury</li></ul>
Sentence Appeal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• the plea and particulars</li><li>• all oral evidence (what the witnesses said)</li><li>• speaking to sentence (by self-represented parties or lawyers):<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>○ in the case of a guilty plea, from the time of the plea,</li><li>○ and in all other cases, from the time of conviction</li></ul></li><li>• any oral reasons for the decision under appeal (what the judge said)</li></ul>

Content

Every appeal record must have a Table of Contents listing each document separately and showing the page number where the document can be found.

Every appeal record consists of three parts. The following charts set out the relevant rule which sets out the required contents of each part.

A complete list of the contents for each part depending on the type of appeal can be found at the end of this document.

	Civil Appeals (includes Fast Track and Standard Appeals)	Conviction Appeals (includes Acquittal and Decision Appeals)	Sentence Appeals
Part 1 (Pleadings)	Rule 14.18(1)(b)	Rule 16.13(1)(b)	Rule 16.14(1)(b)
Part 2 (Final Documents)	Rule 14.18(1)(c)	Rule 16.13(1)(c)	Rule 16.14(1)(c)
Part 3 (Transcripts)	Rule 14.18(1)(d)	Rule 16.13(1)(d)	Rule 16.14(1)(d)

Missing Documents

If any document that should have gone into the Appeal Record is not available at the time of preparation (e.g., the order under appeal), a note to that effect must be inserted in the Appeal Record. A preparer’s note in the Table of Contents will suffice. The missing materials can then be included in the Extracts of Key Evidence or as an appendix to the Factum.

Documents that Cannot Be Included in an Appeal Record

The Appeal Record must NOT contain any comment, argument, trial (written) briefs, legal authorities, evidence, affidavits, exhibits or new evidence: Rule 14.18(2.1) and Rule 16.13(2).

- Written briefs filed in the court below CANNOT be provided without permission. Permission must be obtained by applying to a Case Management Officer.
- Evidence (affidavits, exhibits, agreed statements of fact, expert reports, correspondence, transcripts of questioning, etc.) all belong in the Extracts of Key Evidence.
- New evidence cannot be provided unless an order is granted under Rule 14.45, which requires the filing of an application to admit new evidence in proper format prior to or at the same time as the applicant's factum. See the separate Information Sheet on New Evidence Applications here.

Format

The Appeal Record has a prescribed cover page (Form AP-5 for civil appeals and Form CRA-K for criminal appeals). These forms are available on the Court's website under Court of Appeal > Registry > Filing Information > Filing, Fee and Forms. The forms for civil matters and criminal matters are grouped separately on the website. Ensure that you use the correct one.

An Appeal Record must be formatted in accordance with the Practice Direction on Electronic Filing. This includes such things as coloured covers, bookmarks, pagination, hyperlinking and so on. For complete information, see the Formatting section of the CAMS Manual and the section entitled Electronic Filing Formatting Requirements Overview.

Parts 1 and 2 of the Appeal Record must have red covers. Part 3 does not require a cover page.

Part 3, Transcripts, must be uploaded to the Court's website (located under Court of Appeal > Electronic Filing or click here) and approved before the rest of the Appeal Record (Parts 1 and 2) is filed. Allow at least 3 business days for this step. Transcripts must comply with the Electronic Transcript Checklist. If TMS has prepared the Appeal Record, they will complete this step. If TMS has prepared only the Transcripts, it is the appellant's responsibility to complete this step.

A sample formatted Appeal Record is available on the on the CAMS e-filing website under Manual/Tip Sheets > Sample Formatted Documents.

NOTE

If an exemption from the requirement to file documents electronically is granted, the content, format, filing and other requirements of the Alberta Rules of Court apply except that only one paper copy is required to be filed, and it must be an unbound copy containing no staples or binding other than easily removable clips or rubber bands.
