

APPLICATION PROCESS FOR PROVINCIAL COURT JUDGE CANDIDATES

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST AND ELIGIBILITY

- Qualified lawyers who wish to be considered for appointment as a Provincial Court Judge should complete a Judicial Candidate Information Summary which provides the basic data for the subsequent assessment of, or comment on the candidature by the Judicial Council. Applicants should ensure this form is completed in full and in accordance with the instructions provided. All information received is treated confidentially.
- Applicants are required to have a minimum of 10 years at the Bar.
- No person other than a Canadian citizen may be appointed as a judge.
- Applicants are responsible for providing their criminal record/police information check. Those with an unpardoned criminal record will not be considered.
- Applicants will not be reimbursed for any expenses incurred in connection with their application or with the interview process.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL REVIEW

- Judicial Council consists of the Chief Justice of Alberta or designate, Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench or designate, Chief Judge of the Provincial Court or designate, President of the Law Society of Alberta or designate, and two persons appointed by the Minister of Justice and Solicitor General. Judicial Council is chaired by the Chief Provincial Judge. The names of the two members appointed by the Minister of Justice can be found at <https://www.alberta.ca/public-agency-appointees.cfm>
- Judicial Council contacts the Alberta Law Society as part of their reference check to ensure there are no outstanding insurance claims or complaints against the applicant.
- Judicial Council interviews the applicant. Following the interview, Judicial Council provides the Minister of Justice with its recommendation as to the suitability of the applicant.
- The Ministry of Justice will advise the applicant in writing as to the status of their application (i.e. recommended/not recommended/not recommended at this time).

PROVINCIAL COURT NOMINATING COMMITTEE (PCNC)

- An applicant, who has been approved by Judicial Council, must also be interviewed and recommended by the PCNC before they can be deemed eligible for an appointment.
- The PCNC consists of 11 members. It has representatives from the Alberta Provincial Court, the Law Society of Alberta, the Canadian Bar Association (Alberta Branch), other members from the legal profession, and public members. The names of the eight members appointed by the Minister of Justice can be found at: <https://www.alberta.ca/public-agency-appointees.cfm>
- The PCNC considers applicants on the basis of criteria such as integrity, professional excellence, community involvement, appropriate personal characteristics and representative of the population. The full criteria is set out on page 2 attached. The PCNC will determine those applicants to be interviewed by them, and conduct interviews for the purposes of adding names to the Appointment Eligibility List. The Minister of Justice will select a name from the Appointment Eligibility List to fill a vacancy in Provincial Court. A recommendation will be made to the Lieutenant Governor in Council and, if there is agreement, an Order in Council is issued appointing the new judge.

Authorization for Disclosure of Information Concerning Candidate

I, _____
(First name/middle name(s)/surname)

of _____, Alberta, in consideration of the review and assessment of my application for appointment as an Alberta Provincial Court Judge do hereby:

1. Authorize the Law Society of Alberta to provide to the Alberta Judicial Council, to the Provincial Court Nominating Committee and to the Minister of Justice and Solicitor General of Alberta full information respecting my membership in the Law Society of Alberta, including where applicable, information respecting complaints against my professional conduct, my insurance record, reports on my practice prepared by the Law Society of Alberta, any disciplinary proceedings taken against me or any records relating to a bankruptcy taken by me; and

2. Release, remise and forever discharge the Law Society of Alberta and its staff, the Alberta Judicial Council and their members, the Provincial Court Nominating Committee and their members, the Minister of Justice and Solicitor General of Alberta and staff, and all individuals consulted in respect of my aforesaid candidature, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions and liabilities of every nature and kind whatsoever arising from, as a result of, or in any way related to the release of the aforementioned information, and/or the consideration and assessment of my said application and candidature.

3. Should I be a member of any other Law Society in Canada, I hereby authorize such similar body handling such matters in that jurisdiction to provide such information in sub-paragraph 1 and release all parties, including such similar body and staff as in sub-paragraph 2.
