COURT OF KING'S BENCH OF ALBERTA

ANNOUNCEMENT

REVISED NOTICE TO ATTEND FAMILY DOCKET COURT AND NEW FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE FORM

In conjunction with the Alberta Justice Family Justice Project, the Court of King's Bench has posted a revised form of the Notice to Attend Family Docket Court and a new form of Financial Disclosure Statement to the Court's website.

Notice to Attend Family Docket Court

Effective at the close of business on December 15, 2023, counsel and parties are strongly encouraged to use the new Notice to Attend Family Docket Court. A grace period for the use of the original Notice to Attend Family Docket Court will be in place until February 1, 2024; however the mandatory requirements set out in the Court's Notice to Profession and Public – Family Pre-Court Mandatory Requirements come into effect and apply to all Notices to Attend Family Docket Court submitted for filing after the close of business on Friday, December 15, 2023.

Financial Disclosure Statement

Effective immediately, counsel and parties are strongly encouraged to use the new Financial Disclosure Statement when providing required financial disclosure. However, a disclosure package will not be rejected if a party provides disclosure pursuant to the current Notice to Disclose.
