

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF ALBERTA

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION

COMMERCIAL APPEARANCE COURT ("COM AC")

On a trial basis commencing Tuesday, July 2, 2013, a commercial duty Justice will be available in open chambers in Calgary at 10:00 a.m. every Monday (or Tuesday if Monday is a non-sitting day) and in Edmonton at 2:00 p.m. every Tuesday to deal with urgent, scheduling and consent matters and applications for extensions of time to file materials for pending motions (each of which must take no more than 10 minutes) and opposed applications for adjournments of matters scheduled to be heard during the week.

No pre-bookings for these appearances are necessary. Unless it is not reasonably possible, counsel are responsible for providing copies of all necessary filed and to-be-filed documents directly to the presiding duty justice by noon of the previous Friday.

This is a pilot program and will be reviewed in approximately six months.

A black ink signature of Neil C. Wittmann, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke.

Neil C. Wittmann, Chief Justice

A blue ink signature of John D. Rooke, written in a cursive style.

John D. Rooke, Associate Chief Justice