

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF ALBERTA

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION

Summer Sittings Pilot Project

The Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta is instituting a pilot project for summer trial sittings in Calgary and Edmonton. Commencing January 15, 2012, the Civil and Criminal Trial Coordinators will have the ability to book non-jury criminal and civil trials, that are not expected to take longer than 5 days, to be heard during the period of July 3, 2012 to August 31, 2012. There will be space on the Court schedule for one criminal trial and one civil trial, in each of Calgary and Edmonton, per week.

Neil C. Wittmann, Chief Justice

John D. Rooke, Associate Chief Justice
